La meraviglia della natura diventa protagonista dell'abitare con il sistema di imbottiti Litos: gli schienali bassi si accostano ad ampie e voluminose sedute dalle forme tondeggianti e irregolari che richiamano l'andamento della scogliera salentina.

Oggi il sistema di imbottiti Litos accoglie nuovi elementi di seduta che ampliano le possibilità di configurazione in composizioni più o meno voluminose, adatte ad arredare ogni tipo di ambiente.

Il rivestimento è sfoderabile in una selezione di tessuti e pelli del catalogo Cappellini. Una serie di cuscini in fibra e piuma, liberamente posizionabili, contribuisce a garantire il massimo grado di comfort.

The wonder of nature becomes the main character of home living with Litos system of upholstery: the low backrests are next to large and voluminous seats with round and irregular shapes recalling the silhouette of the cliffs in Salento.

This year, the Litos sofa system is enlarged with the introduction of new seating elements, widening the possibility of configurations in voluminous compositions that fit any kind of context.

The sofas are equipped with removeable covers in a selection of fabrics and leathers from the Cappellini collection. A series of free cushions, made of fiber and feather, can be placed at will for maximum comfort.

SEBASTIAN HERKNER

Nato a Bad Mergentheim, Sebastian Herkner ha studiato design del prodotto all'Università di Offenbach per le Arti e il Design. Durante gli anni della formazione svolge un tirocinio con Stella McCartney a Londra, che lo aiuta ad affinare la percezione di materiali, colori, strutture e tessuti. Le esperienze professionali lo portano a rapportarsi con diversi contesti culturali, dove ha la possibilità sia di sperimentare con nuove tecnologie così come di rapportarsi con le tradizioni artigianali. Nel 2006 fonda il proprio studio a Offenbach am Main, attraverso il quale si concentra sulle potenzialità dei materiali e sull'importanza dei piccoli dettagli. Dal 2007 ha tenuto diversi corsi presso l'università di HfG Offenbach am Main in qualità di visiting lecturer. Gli sono stati conferiti diversi premi come il "German Design Award 2011" nella categoria nuovi talenti, "EDIDA Award 2015" per giovani talenti ed è stato Guest of Honor all'IMM di Colonia 2016.

Born in Bad Mergentheim, Sebastian Herkner studied product design at the Arts and Design University of Offenbach. During his formative years, he did an internship with Stella McCartney in London, which helped him to refine his perception of materials, colours, structures and fabrics. His professional experiences led him to come into contact with diverse cultural contexts in which he was able to experiment with new technologies as well as traditional craftsmanship. In 2006, he founded his own studio in Offenbach am Main. Since 2007, he has held several courses at the University HfG Offenbach am Main as a visiting lecturer. He has also received numerous awards such as the "German Design Award 2011" in the new talents category, the "EDIDA Award 2015" for young talents, as well as being invited as the Guest of Honour at the IMM of Cologne in 2016.
